Scouts to Sing Christmas Carols in El Prado Park

Carolling by local Girl Scout troops will be held on Wednesday, December 21 from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m., at El Prado park in cooperation with the Santa Land program planned by the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. C. B. Hardinghaus is in charge of the event. The Juliette Low Fund donation will be placed in the chimney as the group sings.

The Central Torrance association of Girl Scout Adults were hosted by Mrs. E. Carl Osterlind at her home, 2813 Sonoma, recently.

Election was held and the votes counted with Mrs. Lee Stamps retaining her position of neighborhood chairman. Representative council delegates will be Mrs. Stamps and Mrs. P. M. Crossman. The new nominating - membership committee will be Mesdames J. K. Clutter, Judson Bowers, and Ronald Wigg.

Brownie Troops 532 of Fern-Greenwood and 267 of Halldale will make "Litter Bags" to assist in the local cleanup campaign.

A workshop is planned on Friday, January 13, at the Gardena Community center, 1651 Market st., from 9:30 a.m. until noon.

In lieu of an association meeting in December the members of the group attended the District meeting on Wednesday, December 7, which was a Pot Luck Lunch at the Homer Toberman Settlement house in San Pedro from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

The next association meeting will be held on January 24.

Adult Club Names New Officer Slate

Gossett, Henry Hendrickson, Mrs. Olsa Brown, and Sidney Payne.

The next meeting of the Torrance Adult club will be the Christmas party on Sunday, December 18, beginning at 11 a.m.

The officers are presently planning another full year of activities for the club members. Last years' program included trips to Knott's Berry Farm, Disneyland, Venice Adult club and Adult Recreation center, Glendale Adult Recreation center, and other events such as card tournaments, shuffleboard tournaments, socials, and picnics.

Other members of the board of directors elected were: Guy Hight, Mac Meskimen, Van
